Walter Murphy Wins Position As Port Head

Burlingame Resident To Take Over Job On July 1st

Walter F. Murphy of Burlingame, connected with steamship and terminal operations for the past 12 years, was selected Tuesday night by Redwood City's Board of Port Commissioners as manager of the local municipal harbor, now under construction.

Murphy lives at 1216 Floribunda avenue, but plans to move to Redwood City upon assuming his new duties, which will begin July 1. Amount of salary to be paid Murphy was not determined by the port commission at the session last night.

WITH SHIPPING FIRM

At present Murphy is an agent for the Patterson Shipping Company, which has offices in San Francisco. Prior to his connections with that firm, M[illegible]y, in 1933-34, operated a fleet [illegible] coastwise ships for himself. Before that, for two years, he was manager of plants at Tacoma and Portland for the Interstate Terminals Ltd. From 1925-29 he was assistant manager of the Oakland division of the Lawrence Warehouse Company, and from 1929 to 1931 was with W. R. W. Nickols in Oakland aiding in starting a series of waterfront terminals.

Selection of Murphy by the commission came after consideration of some 50 applicants for the port job. The choice for the position finally narrowed down to two, Frank G. Pender, assistant manager of the Vancouver, Wash., port, being the other.

Pin Devices Are Ruled Out

Expulsion of all pin ball games—ruled illegal by the state attorney general—was supposedly under way in all cities and the unincorporated area of San Mateo county today.

The games, which have been operating unmolested in Redwood City for several years unless they paid off in actual cash, were definitely on the way out of this city.

Acting on advice of the state attorney general and also of Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell, as it turned out, the city council at its meeting last night decided, with only one dissenting vote, to instruct Police Chief C. L. Collins to rid Redwood City of all the marble or pin ball games which pay in cash, merchandise, additional plays or "anything of value."

CLIMAXES LONG FIGHT

The action, which came in the form of a resolution giving the police chief his instructions, culminated a year and a half of agitation for such a move on the part of Councilman James M. Eva, Sequoia high school teacher who long has advocated measures to legislate the "chiseling" games out of the city.

Bringing up of the subject of pin ball games—action on which had been delayed by the council pending fate of several bills before the state legislature, all of which failed of passage—resulted in disclosure of the fact that District Attorney Ferrell had just written to all police chiefs of the county urging them to rid their towns of the pin ball devices.

Sequoia Ranks High In U. S., Letter Says

Sequoia high school has been referred to as "one of the 36 best schools in the country," in a com[illegible]ion received by Principal [illegible] Argo. This high rating is as the reason for Sequoia's [illegible]ision in "an Evaluation of Ex[illegible]ra-Curricular Activities in Large Southern High Schools."

Sequoia is also being used as an example in a thesis on "Organization and Administration of Extra-Curricular Activities in high schools," in which the objectives and problems of such activities are considered by N. A. Smith, principal of the high school at Ambridge, Pa.

Committee Set To Study Move For Bus Lines

Establishment of a city-operated bus system to serve not only Redwood City proper but outlying districts including Emerald Lake on the west and Friendly Acres on the south appeared to have moved a step closer today.

After hearing pleas for establishment of a municipal bus line from various members of a delegation of a score of residents of the city and [illegible]evnirons, the city council on Monday authorized Mayor Paul A. McCarthy to appoint a committee to give detailed study to the proposal and, possibly, devise ways and means of developing the system.

On the committee Mayor McCarthy named City Manager C. L. Dimmitt, chairman; Councilmen Robert N. Jones and Evans A. Fletcher; Norman H. Robotham, president of the Highlands District Improvement Club; L. F. Emerson, vice president of the Friendly Acres Improvement Club; Secretary-Manager Roscoe Wyatt and Pres. Perry Bygdnes of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, and W. L. Cavanaugh, former agent here for Pacific Greyhound. Mayor McCarthy also is to serve.

BRING BUSINESS HERE

Robotham, Emerald Lake district resident who himself is a bus line operator, urged establishment of the system, pointing out that residents in outlying districts would use the bus for shopping in Redwood City were regular schedules and reasonable rates maintained. As it is, Robotham declared, many housewives in his district have their commuting husbands shop in San Francisco.

Emerson pointed out that at present no bus serves the Friendly Acres tract, but that for 75 cents round trip the San Francisco bus may be used.

Cavanaugh spoke briefly, urging establishment of the system, which has been under direction for several months.

FINANCES PROBLEM

Mayor McCarthy stressed the fact that the "most acute problem" in establishment of a city-owned system is the capital for the initial outlay, and suggested that it might be possible for the areas outside the city to grant subsidy aid to purchase the vehicles necessary. McCarthy further said it appears quite likely that a bus line might be self-sustaining from the beginning.

It was on motion of Councilman Fletcher, second of Councilman Jones, that decision was reached to name the study committee.

New Color Seen For S. P. Station

While Redwood City has no chance to get its Southern Pacific depot stuccoed, it may have the station repainted a different color than the "colonial yellow" which has covered it for these many years.

That was the reply today of the railroad firm to the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce's request that the building be refinished in its new location west of the railroad tracks.

"Am sorry to have to inform you that it will not be possible to comply with your request, with respect to use of stucco," Gen. Mgr. A. T. Mercier wrote Sec. Roscoe D. Wyatt of the chamber.

"As to the painting of the building, we have certain alternate standard color plans for application to station buildings, and will be glad to have these presented to you in due course by one of our local officers, in order that we may have the benefit of the views of your organization, prior to the time it becomes necessary to paint the structure."

Cyclist Hurts Foot In Crash With Car

Elmer Weaver, 20, employe of the Humphrey estate at Pescadero, was recovering today at Community Hospital, San Mateo, from a fractured foot suffered Tuesday evening on the coastside when his motorcycle collided with the automobile of a friend, Norman Steele of Pescadero.

San Mateo police, to whom the accident was reported after Steele had rushed the injured cyclist to the hospital, said they believed the two young men were driving side by side when the accident

LOCAL MAN SAYS ALL ENJOY CAMP TRIP

A vacation that will please the whole family is found in a camping trip, according to V. E. Jones, local manager of the Western Auto Supply Company, who declares that there is something about camp life that not only affords a change from workaday worries, but also adds a zest for living that lasts the whole year through. Most important things about such a vacation trip are "sleep" and "eats," he adds, and advises prospective campers to be sure their stove, bed and bedding are in good condition before setting out on such a trip.

Toastmasters Call Holiday

In holiday mood, the Redwood City Toastmasters Club Monday evening closed their programs for the year with Ladies Night.

Members' wives and friends gathered with the club in the social hall of the Methodist Church to hear a program of five talks on vacation subjects.

Before the speeches, however, the club seated Louis Demattеis as president, succeeding Earl Whitaker. B. E. Myers, first president of the three-year-old club, paid a brief tribute to Whitaker.

Chairman Duncan Reynard introduced the speakers following a dinner served by women members of the church.

Earl Whitaker spoke on "California, Vacation Land"; Homer Spellenberg, "Camping: A Cure for ental Erosion"; Milum Tackitt, "Chasing the Chinook Salmon"; Cuthbert Currie, "Ontario Province, Canada"; and Fred Glover, "The Youth Inn Movement in Germany and its Spread to the United States."

Harvey Hall bid adieu to the club in his last appearance as critic. Next August, when the club resumes its meetings, Robert Gros of Stanford will occupy the critic post.

Other officers seated included: vice president, Tackitt; secretary, Louis McAtee; and sergeant-at-arms, Clarence Holt.

$16,000 Distributed From White Estate

First portion to be distributed of the $1,210,494 estate left by William K. White, Menlo Park ranch owner who died August 31, 1936, $16,000 Monday was ordered by Judge Maxwell McNutt to be paid out to executors and their attorney.

Judge McNutt ordered that $4000 each in executors' commissions should go to Mrs. Alice M. White, the widow, to whom Mr. White left the bulk of his fortune, and to Edward H. White, his son, a San Franciscan. The sum of $8000 was ordered paid to Atty. Herbert D. Armstrong of San Francisco for his services to the Whites in administering the estate.

Death Terminates Visit to Daughter

A happy week's visit with his daughter, Mrs. C. L. White, 511 Buckeye street, ended in death late here Monday for Andrew W. Kingsley, 87, resident of Pittsburg for the last nine of the 75 years he had lived in California.

His death climaxed a long period of declining health. He had been retired since 1928.

Besides Mrs. White, he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Mabel E. Baker of Pittsburg.

$10 Pay Fixed For Poll Workers In Charter Vote

At a meeting Wednesday afternoon the board of supervisors took another preparatory step for the June 22 charter amendment election.

They set $10 as the rental to be paid for polling places, and also established $10 as the wage to be paid each of the 828 poll officials in the 20[illegible] precincts.

Meanwhile interest in the election appeared to have reached a "lull" following the intensive bombardment of statements that marked the court proceedings which resulted in Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt ordering the supervisors to call the election.

However, there were reports that both sides in the charter amendment battle—the ones seeking to make the county executive and five other officials elective and those who wish to retain them in their appointive status—were preparing for the fray and that the coming weeks will bring a barrage of publicity on the important issues.

The board appropriated $525 to repair a boiler which broke down yesterday at the county relief home when an automatic device failed to function. The boiler went dry and several sections of it cracked.

At the same time the supervisors decided to take advantage of the mishap to install a new water-heating device, which will bring the total cost of the repair job to approximately $1200, according to Board Chairman Hugh H. Smith.

Only controversial matter on what appeared to be an agenda otherwise barren of possibilities for sensational developments was the Colma fire district row.

This was due to come up late in the afternoon, with Atty. F. E. Hoffmann of San Mateo representing petitioners who are demanding that an election be called on a proposal to dissolve the district, only recently formed.

'Blarney' Back Home; Had Suffered Injury

Anne Ryan, deputy county controller, was glad today.

So were prisoners at the county jail.

And, if tail wagging and contented loafing are any proof, so was "Blarney," smart little wire-haired fox terrier who has been missing from his 505 Marshall street home for more than a month, since shortly after he was pictured in The Tribune sitting on the jail steps.

For "Blarney," whose idiosyncracies include a penchant for life at the courthouse and at the jail, was recovered yesterday by his owner, Miss Ryan, from an inn near San Carlos. The inn keeper said the dog had been injured in an automobile accident and that he had cared for the animal ever since.

Holiday Advice Given By Chief

Advice to those who depart from the city and leave their homes unguarded during the summer was issued today by Chief of Police C. L. Collins, who declared the most important thing that should be done is to notify the police.

When a householder informs his police department that he is to be out of town, his address is placed on file and patrolmen are detailed to make special trips daily to residences whose owners are away, the chief said.

Secondly, the owner should make an inventory of the articles he has left behind at home. When jewelry or other things of high value cannot be taken with the vacationer, Chief Collins suggested they be placed in a safe deposit box.

It is wise also, the chief pointed out, for vacationists to disguise the fact that they are away. He advised that newspapers be transferred to the new address or stopped and that the milkman be notified. Leaving window shades halfway up might lead would-be burglars to think someone is at home. They should never be pulled all the way down. "In other words, don't invite trouble," Chief Collins concluded.

Air Travel Gains In May Over April

During May United Air Lines showed a 41 per cent increase in air traffic over April out of the bay area, it was announced yesterday by S. A. Stimpson, district traffic manager.

Released figures showed that a total of 3241 revenue passengers boarded out-bound planes from San Francisco and Oakland last month as compared with 2307 in April.

Present bookings indicated that June would show a similar increase over May, Stimpson said. He attributed the sudden growth in business to the introduction of Douglas Mainliner schedules on the north and south runs and the inauguration of the "Continental" between here and New York as the world's only extra fare plane.

Mrs. Margaret Bell's Mother Dies Here

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Howell, 84, died shortly after 1 p.m. Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Bell, 2897 El Camino Real.

Mrs. Howell, who had been ill a month, came here six months ago from Clarkston, Wash., where her husband, James Howell, passed away three years ago today.

Besides the daughter here, Mrs. Howell leaves a son, Herbert Howell, of Lewiston, Ida., and four other daughters, all of the Pacific Northwest.

'ROMANCE IN RELIGION' EXPLAINED TO GRADUATES AT SENIOR SERVICE

Pointing out the need of religion as a part of life's equipment along with the training of mind and muscle, the Rev. Charles E. Ward of the First Congregational Church told of the "Romance in Religion" Sunday when he delivered the main address at the annual senior service in the Sequoia high school auditorium, where some 260 seniors were gathered.

He quoted Theodore Roosevelt's statement that "To educate a man in mind and not in morals is to make of him only a clever devil, more dangerous to the community because more powerful," and pointed out that youth is the time of idealism, when one chooses one's life work and makes a decision as to religion.

"Religion has a way of slipping out of the heart and closing the door quietly behind, unless watched with the eye of conscience that never sleeps," Dr. Ward declared, but "It saves life from deadening selfishness."

That almost all the sin and suffering in the world—war, strife and economic struggle—is based on selfishness—was pointed out by the speaker, who declared that too many youths have the false idea that success means making money and being comfortable.

"If this be right and commendable, then Jesus Christ was a knave or fool," Dr. Ward emphasized, "for Christ said that life consists not of the abundance of things a man possesses."

To illustrate this point, Dr. Ward recalled a number of wealthy and "successful" men who have committed suicide, because they found life empty despite their wealth and abundance of material possessions.

"You will never really understand life, until you discover that a multitude of modern gadgets do not bring peace or power or inner unity," he told the graduating seniors, quoting Professor Hopping of Harvard University in his statement that there is more "lostness" in the world today than ever before—more lost souls, living frustrated, discouraged and defeated lives.

"We have more things than our forefathers ever dreamed of having, but less genius with which to use them," he declared. "Our age abounds in folks built like billboards, with imposing fronts, and a vacant lot behind."

The senior service, arranged by the Redwood City Ministerial Union, was opened with selections by the high school orchestra playing under direction of Max Gelber, two pieces from "Woodland Sketches" by Edward MacDowell "At an Old Trysting Place" and "To a Wild Rose."

The orchestra, participating in the senior service for the first time, also played the processional —Mendelssohn's "Festival March" —to which the seniors entered the auditorium, wearing their caps and gowns for the first event in Senior Week activities.

The Rev. William J. Owen of the First Methodist Episcopal Church presided at the service, while the invocation was said by the Rev. A. A. Reed of the San Carlos Congregational Church; the Scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Schuyler Pratt of St. Peter's Episcopal Church; the evening prayer was made by Mr. Owen, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. George McCracken of the Woodside Congregational Church. Ministers of the two other churches in the Sequoia high school district sponsoring the service were the Rev. C. H. Gatchell of the First Baptist Church and the Rev. W. L. Staub of the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church.

Once Wealthy Woman Kills Self in Auto

S. F. Milliner Found Dead in Machine On Coastside

San Mateo county's coastside was the setting for another suicide Wednesday.

The latest victim of death by carbon monoxide poisoning was Mrs. Thea Marsi Simon, 36, estranged wife of a San Francisco millinery manufacturer and member of a one-time wealthy Austrian family who came to this country after the World War.

Her body was found in her gas-filled automobile about 10:30 a. m. by John Keenan, a San Francisco trucker, as he drove along the Pedro Mountain road near Pedro Point.

IN RENTED CAR

Mrs. Simon had parked her car, a rented machine obtained from a Los Angeles agency, off the side of the road and attached a hose to the exhaust of the coupe running the tube into the automobile.

On the seat by the side of Mrs. Simon was a note blaming her act on an "incurable illness" and asking that Atty. Joseph A. Murphy of Oakland be notified. Also on the seat was a loaded .38 calibre revolver and a half-emptied liquor bottle, Deputy Coroner Louella Pepper of Daly City reported to Coroner William Crosby. Mrs. Pepper had been summoned by the truckdriver. She took the body to the W. C. Lasswell mortuary in Daly City.

RECENTLY IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Simon, whose home was at 1896 Pacific avenue in San Francisco, was the recently estranged wife of Gerald Simon, whom she had married two years ago, it was reported at her home. She herself was a milliner. Simon heads the Simon Millinery Company of 989 Market street.

Mrs. Simon, it was learned, had been in ill health for some time, and recently had been confined in a sanitarium.

Relief Committee Gives Up Funds For WPA Projects

Peace reigned once again today between the state-appointed San Mateo County Unemployment Relief Commission and Engineer U. S. Marshall.

At a conference with the board of supervisors Monday the five remaining members of the nine-man relief board agreed to permit Marshall to use a $10,000 balance in their relief fund to match state money for the purchase of materials for WPA projects.

The subject of the engineering department's use of the commission's funds has been a tender one with the commission for several months. They claimed the money could not be used without their permission.

Members of the commission now are Father Michael Powers of Burlingame, Mrs. Harry S. Dana of Hillsborough, James Ferguson of Daly City, Felix B. LaCrosse of Half Moon Bay and J. Elmer Morrish of Redwood City.

The commission asked the supervisors to appropriate again this year $25,000 for unemployment relief to pair with a similar amount expected from the state.

Pension Expenses In County Gain

A steady increase in county residents receiving old age pensions during the last fiscal year was revealed today by a report of Health Director Charles C. Gans, showing that pension expenditures rose from $10,500 in July, 1936, to $17,500 in June of this year.

Total of federal, state and county expenditures for pensions—with the contributions being divided into 40 per cent federal funds and 30 per cent each for the county and state—was $173,490, more than $25,000 less than the anticipated expenditure.

The rise was anticipated, according to Dr. Gans, because of the state's decrease of age requirements to 65, and loosening up of continuous residence requirements, now 5 years instead of 15.

From 340 cases last July, the number of cases increased to 459 this month. Orphan aid cases, 192 last July, with an expenditure of $2792, rose to 200 this month, with an outlay of $3700.

Zoning Restriction Adopted for M. P.

MENLO PARK, June 9.—Final adoption of a zoning ordinance amendment creating a new zone AA and forbidding the construction of duplex houses in the Stanford Park Map No. 2 and Partridge subdivisions was accomplished by the Menlo Park city council at its regular semi-monthly meeting last night.

The council continued an adjourned public hearing on the amendment and entertained the further filing of protests.

Complete reorganization of the police department as recommended by Carroll, commissioner of police, was approved by the council. Henceforth the officers will be assigned to the following duties.

Tom Kearney—take charge of the license bureau and tax collections and direct traffic at the Central School.

Foster Andrews—direct traffic patrol and continue in charge of criminal identification, fingerprinting and photography.

Bud Roach—on night patrol duty from 10 p.m. to 8 a.m.

Carl Nelson—assistant on traffic patrol and relief man.

His further recommendations, first—that the present city ordinance against the sale of fireworks be rigidly enforced this year, and second, that the position of traffic signals be shifted and a caution light installed at the intersection of Santa Cruz avenue and the highway to protect pedestrians, were both approved by the council.

3-Year-Probation Won By Attacker

Roger Moudy, 22, former San Mateo Junior College student, will serve one year in the county jail here and then be on probation for two years more—with the shadow of San Quentin prison hanging over any future offense—Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt ruled late Monday as the youth appeared before him for sentence on a charge of assault.

Moudy was captured April 25 two hours after he assertedly slugged and attempted to attack an 18-year-old San Mateo housemaid, Jeanette Watkins.

The young man had pleaded guilty to the charge and asked for probation. It was upon the recommendation of Probation Officer Francis Robinson that Judge McNutt accorded Moudy leniency.

Digressing from his general subject, Dr. Moose urged consideration of more use of public funds to promote the general health and well-being of needy people.

Dr. Rollo LaBerge was chairman of the meeting, Pres. C. L. Stokes presided.

Closing of Avenues Decision Postponed

ATHERTON, June 9—Objections that the proposed abandonment of Altshul and Yedra avenues within the city of Atherton was "not for public convenience and necessity" and directed "in the interests of a few" and specifically that it was intended to enhance the privacy of property owned by Robert Levison, were lodged with the Atherton town council at a public hearing on the matter yesterday afternoon.

After hearing arguments presented by Atty. James T. O'Keefe, Jr., for the objectors, and Hillyer Brown, counsel for initiators of the abandonment, the hearing was adjourned until later in the month to await action by the San Mateo county supervisors who have a joint jurisdiction over the two avenues since they lie partly within and partly outside of incorporated territory.

Factory employment in the United States during the last year was 40 per cent higher than in 1932 and weekly factory payrolls were 80 per cent greater, according to the United States department of labor.

Boellaard Tots Receive Tragic Death Heritage

The tragic death of their mother and father in a Redwood City grade crossing accident last July has brought a heritage of $4539.11 to the Boellaard orphans, Olga, 8, and Leanna, 5.

The sum was paid the tots under a compromise approved by Superior Judge A. R. Cotton.

The money, paid by the Western States Life Insurance Company, will be held in trust for the orphans, now in custody of their aunt, Nina Kusnetsoff.

Dist. Atty. Gilbert Ferrell's aide, Burress Karmel, had sought to secure $6000 from the company under a triple indemnity clause.

The orphans were the central figures in a dramatic court fight here over their custody, with their aunt, who came from Japan to claim them, victorious after several months' litigation.

January rainfall was the heaviest ever recorded in Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Kansas, Arkansas, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and New York.

7 Awards Given At St. Joseph's Graduation Rites

Seven awards were presented to outstanding students at commencement exercises held by St. Joseph's school in Menlo Park Monday, when 13 children received their diplomas and heard addresses by the Rev. Father Thomas McKeon of the Church of the Nativity and by June Davis, a member of the class.

Another graduate, Barbara Blanchard, presented the prologue to the religious play, "Hearts and Roses," which was given by a student cast.

The commencement ceremony was held out-doors, with the shrine of St. Joseph's as the background.

A gold medal for Christian Doctrine was presented to Jack Wilson and a silver medal for Christian Doctrine to Joan O'Grady. American Legion awards for "citizenship, scholarship, comradeship, leadership and sportsmanship" went to Leander James and June Davis. The St. Joseph's School award for the highest scholarship and the highest rating in the Stanford Achievement Test was won by Margaret Moore and second place in scholarship and the Stanford test, by Richard Trapp.

Barbara Blanchard was presented with a two-year scholarship to Mercy High School in Burlingame for outstanding scholastic work.

The 13 students graduated were Barbara Maloney, Barbara Blanchard, Evelyn Cascio, June Davis, Margaret Moore, Marie Hullen, Leander James, Jack Roach, Richard Trapp, Louis Belloni, Robert Markins, Guido Bedelli and Joseph McLaughlin.

ANNIVERSARY HONORED

SAN CARLOS, June 9.—San Carlos Fire Department members were guests of John W. Rutherdale at the city hall for a social meeting last night in honor of the third anniversary of the opening of Brittan Park. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perry of Palo Alto, just back following a world tour, were guest speakers. Refreshments and other entertainment rounded out the meeting.

BEE'S NEST CAUSES FIRE

SAN CARLOS, une 8—A blazing oak tree that caught fire and toppled over after attempts had been made to burn out a nest of bees from its hollow stump gave the San Carlos and county fire departments a brief struggle Sunday morning before the tree fire and the grass aflame around its base were extinguished. The blaze occured on Alameda de las Pulgas, in Brittan Hills.

Bridge Firm Loses Suit Over Taxes

Fears held a year ago, when a suit was filed in Contra Costa county, that San Mateo county might have to rebate taxes it had collected over a period of years on Dumbarton and San Mateo-Hayward bridges were apparently dispelled today.

Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco of Mariposa county, sitting in the Contra Costa court, ruled that the American Toll Bridge Company could not collect $131,593.25 it paid under protest in property taxes on the Carquinez and Antioch bridges between 1931 and 1934. County officials here had pointed out that should the bridge firm across the bay win its suit, it would establish a case on which the San Mateo county bridge companies might likewise sue for return of taxes paid.

Mrs. Florence W. Magruder, his widow, has petitioned the local superior court for probate of the will of her husband, Edward Magruder, Redwood City realtor for more than 30 years who died June 3 in North Palo Alto of heart trouble.

The probate petition, filed through Attys. O'Keefe & O'Keefe, disclosed that all of the "more than $10,000" estate was bequeathed to the widow. An adopted son, Bonnie W. Magruder, also survived Mr. Magruder.

NAPOLEON, JOSEPHINE'S "GREAT LOVER," was JUST a HUSBAND to MARIE LOUISE

Newly discovered letters from the little corporal to his second wife show clearly that his first one was his great love, for to Marie Louise he wrote of battles and such, but to Josephine he poured out his heart in burning ardor

Napoleon loved Josephine madly, and wrote the most impassioned letters to her whenever they were separated. . . . She is shown below, in a miniature by Isabey.

Marie Louise, the proud daughter of the emperor of Austria, never stirred him as did her predecessor, and his letters to her reveal him as a stilted, formal lover. A contemporary portrait of Marie Louise is reproduced below.

By Milton Bronner

LONDON

IF the ghosts of those two splendid ladies of a lost empire, Josephine Bonaparte and the Empress Marie Louise, could have wandered into Sotheby's historic shop in London recently, they would probably have exchanged haughty and icy glances over a little stack of dusty, time-stained letters—and the lady who lost would have been the one who looked triumphant.

For these letters were written by Napoleon nearly a century and a quarter ago. They were written to his second wife, Marie Louise—and, by a singular coincidence, their sale at auction here came only a little more than a year after the similar sale of a sheaf of letters he had written to Josephine, Marie Louise's predecessor.

And they point the contrast between the two women and their places in Napoleon's life.

Josephine, the sultry Creole adventuress who was the love of his youth, received a burning series of missives as impassioned as any ever written by an impetuous poet to the girl of his dreams.

And Marie Louise, daughter of the great house of Hapsburg, for whom he cast Josephine aside—Marie Louise got letters that were formal, stilted, dutiful . . . and as cool as an army bulletin.

To Josephine, in one of the letters sold last year, Napoleon could write:

"You must be here with me, on my breast, in my arms, lip to lip. Fly, I am so impatient."

To Marie Louise, in one of the 300 letters auctioned just recently, he wrote:

"I am at Smolensk I have taken this city from the Russians. . . . I am very occupied every day here and in combats." (Punctuation was not his strong point.)

BUT however wounded Marie Louise's pride might be, if her shade could contrast the unemotional letters she got with the burning ones Josephine got, the letters recently sold were of extraordinary interest to historians.

They were written between 1810, just before Napoleon and Marie Louise were married, and 1814, when his empire came crashing down about his ears. A mystery surrounds their appearance on the market. All that was said was that they had belonged to an Austrian noble family; and it is believed, in some quarters, that the sellers were actually connected with the Hapsburgs themselves.

Wherever they came from, they had never been seen by historians before, and they brought a high price, going to the French government for about $75,000.

Some of them will be more understandable if you brush up a little on your history.

Napoleon needed an heir to his throne, and Josephine, his first wife, seemed unable to give him one; so he divorced her and arranged a marriage with Marie Louise. Marie Louise lived in Vienna, knew no French and looked on Napoleon as a sort of ogre. But her father, the Emperor Francis, whose armies had recently been beaten by Napoleon, was anxious to arrange the marriage for reasons of state. On Feb. 23, 1810, learning that his offer had been accepted, Napoleon wrote the princess:

"The brilliant qualities which distinguish your person have inspired in us to serve and honor you and to address to the emperor, your father, the desire to confide to us the happiness of your imperial highness. Could we hope that she will accept the sentiments which inspire us to this step? May we flatter ourselves that she will not be determined only by the duty of obedience to her parents? Little as the sentiments of your imperial highness display partiality for us, we wish to cultivate it with so much care and take as our task to please her in everything, that we flatter ourselves to succeed in being agreeable to her."

Napoleon's diction, now and then, grew just a shade confused.

ABOUT two weeks after writing this letter, Napoleon married Marie Louise by proxy, the Archduke Charles of Austria representing him at a ceremony in Vienna. Then Marie Louise set out for France by coach, accompanied by some of her own people and some French functionaries Napoleon had sent her. A week after this proxy wedding, while she was still en route, Napoleon wrote her as follows:

"I learn that you have deprived yourself of your governess in order to appear among my people totally surrounded by French. I approve and I am very grateful for what you have done and yet I am sad. This new sacrifice added to those of your father and your family will make your heart bleed anew. But, madame, do not hold it against your spouse. It has not been in his power to spare you these terrible moments which inhere in the nature of things . . .

"Caroline writes me that you desire strongly to know what can make me happy. I wish to tell you myself this secret. Madame, it will appear simple to you and yet it is quite true: Be truly happy over our union."

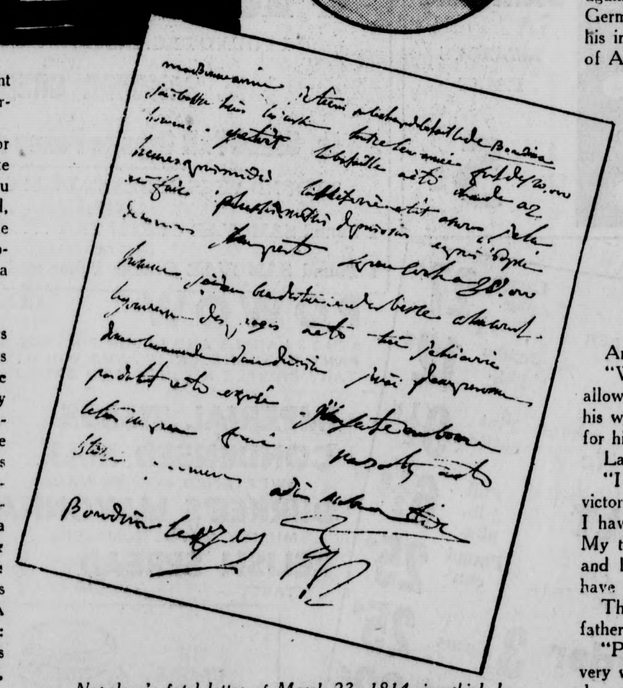
Marie Louise finally reached Paris and was greeted as empress. In due course she bore the long-hoped-for son, whom Napoleon proclaimed King of Rome. Then—on May day, 1912—Napoleon set forth with his greatest army on the most colossal and fatal of his ventures: the campaign which took him to Russia and paved the way for his downfall.

Special couriers took back his letters to Marie Louise. One of them, sent from Reichenbach, Germany, reads thus:

"I stop an instant for lunch, I take profit to write you and recommend to you to be gay and not be moved, all the promises that I made you will be kept, so our separation will only be for a little while."

SOMETIMES his letters contain homely touches such as might appear in the letters of any man far away from his family. From Koenigsberg, for instance, he wrote saying that she was wrong to accuse him of idleness; he has sometimes written her as often as twice a day. He is glad to receive news about his son, and is glad that Marie Louise has recovered from a cold. A little later there comes this:

"They tell me good things about the king (his son), that he is growing, walks and is in good health. . . . Adieu, my dear Louise, I desire very much to see you and give you a kiss upon your beautiful mouth."



Napoleon's fatal letter of March 23, 1814, in which he told Marie Louise of his intention to march his army away from Paris. The letter was captured by the Prussians, who thus learned that Paris was being left undefended—and marched in and took possession.

Deep into Russia went Napoleon, hurling his mighty army against the tremendous masses the Russians sent against him. On Sept. 8, 1812, he wrote:

"I am on the battlefield of Borodino I beat the Russians yesterday All their army 120,000 strong was there. The fight was hot. the victory was enormous I have made thousands of prisoners. I have had many killed and wounded—My person was not at all exposed."

Eight days later he wrote her from Moscow, which he had just occupied. Like any country bumpkin, he expressed his surprise that the city was as big as Paris, with many fine palaces furnished in the French style, and a fine, metropolitan air about it.

He mentioned that a great fire was raging. The famous burning of Moscow, which signalized the utter failure of his seemingly triumphant Russian campaign and foreshadowed the loss of his army, was in progress—but he seemed not to see the significance of it. He remarked merely that it would be an enormous loss to the Russians.

By Sept. 20, however, he had evacuated Moscow. On that date he wrote:

"I am en route to take up winter quarters. The weather is superb but it won't last. Moscow was entirely burned and not being a military position I had it abandoned and withdrew the garrison I had left there."

In this matter of fact way he announced the beginning of that tragic winter march which was to destroy five-sixths of his magnificent army, strew the bones of tens of thousands of the finest of France's sons across the snowy Russian wastes—victims of the cold, hunger and the perpetually-active bands of Cossacks which hung like wolves to his flanks—and which, in addition, was to start him on the tragic path downward which ended at St. Helena.

DURING the retreat from Moscow he concealed from Marie Louise the fearful hardships of the march. Once he wrote anxiously to ask her how their son was teething. He complained that he received no letters from her; he suspected that Cossacks were intercepting his couriers.

The next year, with Europe rising in arms against him, Napoleon took a new army into Germany. By now he was definitely worried; his imperial father-in-law, the Emperor Francis of Austria, was growing hostile, and it was reported that he would actually take up arms against the French. So, in April, Napoleon wrote to Marie Louise:

"Write to Papa Francis every eight days, give him military details and speak of my attachment to his person."

A little later he wrote:

"Louise, you see that this country (France) will not allow itself to be mistreated nor have shameful conditions imposed upon it by Russia or England. . . . I have actually a million men under arms."

And a little later he wrote:

"Write to Papa Francis that he should not allow himself to be influenced by the hate that his wife has for us, that this will only be fatal for him and will bring many misfortunes."

Later that same day he wrote:

"I am very fatigued I have won a complete victory over the Russian and Prussian armies. I have lost 10,000 men killed and wounded. My troops have covered themselves with glory and have given me proofs of devotion which have touched my heart."

Then comes another warning for the imperial father-in-law:

"Papa Francis has not conducted himself very well. . . . Peace will be made if Austria does not fish in troubled water."

CAMPAIGNS dragged on. After Leipzig, where he was roundly defeated, Napoleon wrote to Marie Louise assuring her that "my troops have a decided supremacy over the enemy." and urging her to "show calm."

Back to France, then, with invading armies tightening a net about him. And on March 23, 1814, Napoleon wrote a fatal letter. He was in Bar-sur-Aube, and he wrote Josephine that he planned to march toward the Marne in order to draw the enemy—General Bluecher and his Prussians—away from Paris. The letter was captured by the enemy, Bluecher learned that Napoleon was leaving Paris unguarded—and marched in and possessed himself of the capital.

Napoleon's great drama was nearly over. There followed, rapidly, abdication, exile to Elba, his dazzling return, Waterloo—and a final, lonely six years at St. Helena . . . while Marie Louise stayed in Vienna, found a lover in an Austrian count, and, after Napoleon's death, married him.

Early Sequoian, R. C. Native, Dies

A long illness ended in death in Franklin Hospital, San Francisco, early Monday for Reuben Oliver Elvin, who was born in Redwood City 53 years ago and was one of the early graduates of Sequoia high school. He had lived in San Francisco for 30 years, where he was a shipping clerk.

Mr. Elvin belonged to the Metamora Tribe No. 24, Improved Order of Red Men, and Court Madrone No. 158, Foresters of America, both of Redwood City.

Surviving relatives include three sisters, Mrs. John Ralston of North Fair Oaks; Mrs. Henrietta Bangle of Burlingame and Mrs. Edna Abrott of Haywards, whose husband, William Abrott, died last week; and five brothers, Ferdinand Elvin of Alameda and Frank, Arthur, John and Theodore Elvin of San Francisco.

Margaroni Relatives File Plane Death Suit

The widow and seven sisters and brothers left by Remo Margaroni, San Bruno restaurant owner who met death February 9 in a plane which crashed into San Francisco bay just off Mills Field, filed suit Tuesday against San Francsico and the United Air Lines for $150,000 damages. The suit, to be heard in San Francisco superior court, was filed through the Bank of America as representative of the plaintiffs.

Many Topics Before State Chamber Meet

Water conservation, labor policies and taxation will be studied by delegates from nine counties, including San Mateo county, attending the central coast council of the California State Chamber of Commerce at Hotel Oakland, Oakland, on Friday.

Counties that will be represented besides San Mateo, include Santa Clara, Alameda, San Francisco, Contra Costa, Santa Cruz, Monterey, San Benito and San Luis Obispo.

Roscoe Wyatt, secretary-manager of the Redwood City chamber, will attend the meeting, as will Granville Browning and Gilbert Keitle, secretaries of the Burlingame and San Mateo chambers, respectively. Henry Witte of Redwood City is also planning to attend.

VACAVILLE FILM SEIZURE BALKS SHOWING HERE; PROTESTS SENT

Showing of the motion picture "Spain in Flames" failed to materialize at Foresters' Hall here Sunday night, and as a result telegraphed protests from the 500 or so people who gathered to see it were dispatched to those assertedly responsible for failure of the film to arrive.

The film, which was supposed to depict the Spanish cipil war, and projection equipment were seized in Vacaville by Mayor Edward Cox and Police Chief O. E. Alley and deputies, who charged that the film was Communistic propaganda. Four men were arrested there in the raid, charged with showing a motion picture without a license. Their arraignment was set for June 17 and they were released on $50 bond each.

Alfred Newman Wins Scholarship to U. C.

Alfred Newman, Sequoia high school senior who will be graduated tomorrow evening, was awarded one of two district alumni association scholarships to the University of California, it was learned today.

The award was made through a committee headed by Rolla B. Wyatt of San Mateo.

When the U. S. army, in 1908, called for bids for its first airplane, the amounts asked ranged from $850 to $10,000,000.

PETE SHARON MEWHIRTER
(Special to The Tribune)

SAN CARLOS, June 10.—Little Sharon Mewhirter was the honored guest at a dinner party Tuesday, the occasion being her sixth birthday. Her mother, Mrs. A. L. Mewhirter, entertained nine young friends at the Mewhirter home on Highland avenue. During the afternoon Miss Lois Burton assisted the hostess in entertaining the children with various games.

Young guests invited to the party were Edwin and Carol Valencia, Stanley Coleman, Patsy Clarke, Marilyn Boos, Diane Lynch, Shirley Forbes, Idamae McChesney and Lois Burton.

Mrs. D. P. Patterson of Oakland, mother of Mrs. A. L. Mewhirter, arrived in San Carlos the early part of the week to spend several weeks at the Mewhirter home.

Forty-four San Carlos Girl Scout enthusiasts attended the annual garden card party given by Sequoia District Girl Scouts Tuesday afternoon at the E. S. Heller estate in Atherton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Pratt of Arundel road will be among the guests at a dinner party next Wednesday evening when Mrs. Pratt's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Priddle of San Francisco, observe their 51st wedding anniversary at their home.

Teddy Miller and Robert Day of San Carlos, among the boys who participated in the recent soapbox derby in Redwood City, were guests of the Kiwanis Club at the midget auto races in San Francisco last evening. Teddy was one of the five winners in the younger group and Robert made the third fastest time.

Winding up the semester activities and studies, San Mateo Junior College students will celebrate at the annual summer formal at the Devonshire Country Club tomorrow evening.

Patrons and patronesses invited are Dean and Mrs. Charles Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bashor, Mr. and Mrs. James Tormey, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Abercrombie and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Turbitt.

Arranging the affair, under chairmanship of Corabel Hoover, are Jack Hughmanick, James Lewis, Art Nobbs, Alison Smith, Phyllis Young, Charlotte Kennedy, Helen Chestnut, Helen Kennedy, Lyla Crane, Stanley Moore, Stanford Burberick, Elmer Hanson, Stephen Grundy, Warren Hamilton, Luther Wing and Kenneth Buecue.

An itinerary that included Washington, Baltimore, New York and several other eastern cities and occupied a period of six weeks' travel was concluded Monday when Herbert Allen Walsh of Baytree road returned to his San Carlos home.

Honoring Miss Barbara Steinbeck of Burlingame, bride-elect of James Savage of San Bernardino, Mrs. Roy S. Dunton of Baytree road entertained at an informal garden party yesterday. In the group were Miss Jane Offield, Miss Ruth Weston, Miss Helen Wayte, the honored guest and the hostess.

Mrs. Fred Carlisle is in Superior, Wis., visiting with her mother, who has been in poor health. She will remain away until next week.

Miss Patricia Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Lyon of Woodland avenue, will return this week to her home from Castilleja School in Palo Alto, where she has been a student.

Construction of a temporary sales office for Brittany Park subdivision, west of El Camino Real, has been started at the corner of Brittan road and El Camino Real.

Making way for the widening of El Camino Real, the Standard Oil service station at San Carlos avenue is being moved back this week.

Non-Support Charged Would-Be Suicide

Edmund B. Brennan, 52, Burlingame plasterer who was foiled in a spectacular suicide attempt May 15, pleaded guilty here Monday day to a charge of non-support and asked Superior Judge A. R. Cotton for probation.

Brennan was jailed on complaint of his wife, who lives with her three children at 1020 Capuchino avenue, Burlingame.

Brennan's plea will come before Judge Cotton in two weeks.

Brennan, estranged from his wife, was rescued from suicide by deputy sheriffs who waded more than 100 feet through rising waters on the Kings river slough near Hanford. Motorists called officers when they saw Brennan drive his car into the slough and attach a hose to his exhaust pipe. He was unconscious when officers broke into the car. He blamed family trouble at the time.

Invention School Planned By Merrill

When the California School of Mechanical Arts opens next fall in San Francisco, it will be the first school of its kind in the nation — to be known as the School of Invention.

Founder and chief patron is George A. Merrill of Redwood City, director of the James Lick Endowment School for the past 43 years. He is director of seven other endowments for education of youth in the practical arts.

The new school will be open to any inventor west of the Rockies. He may bring or send his inventive idea, and it will be examined thoroughly. If it is thought worthy, students at the school will make the necessary drawings and models, all under the direction of experienced instructors.

High Court Faced On Driving Charge

The third time may be a charm for some people, but not for Walter Rogers, 44, 206 Redwood avenue, local carpenter.

Finding Rogers assertedly driving erratically on El Camino Real here late yesterday, Officer W. H. Thorpe swore out a superior court complaint against him for what the policeman said was the carpenter's third arrest for driving
